Many first time home buyers start looking at homes and then contact the agent listed on the properties they might be interested in. But you need someone on your side. Buying a home for the first time can be a particularly intimidating prospect, and understandably so. A home is one of the largest material assets that you will ever own in your lifetime, if not the largest, and a huge investment of both time and resources. I understand and I'm aware of the stress that purchasing a home for the first time can place on buyers.

With my history of client satisfaction and proven results, I am truly the best real estate professional for you!

As your chosen real estate agent, I offer:

- Communication

By working together, we will be able to determine your goals in purchasing a home and formulate a plan of action to best fulfill them. I will make sure you are always "in the loop" and aware of all new developments as we work on finding your home.

- Experience

As a seasoned real estate professional, I have assisted many home buyers, first time and veterans alike, in finding the homes of their dreams. By selecting me as your agent I will put my experience and knowledge to work for you to ensure that we find a home that meets your needs quickly, efficiently, and with no hassles.

- Care

Addressing your concerns throughout the entire process, from the beginning to your closing, is my greatest priority. By placing your trust in me as your agent, you can rest easy in the knowledge that your interests are being attended to by a professional that is personally committed to meeting your needs as a home buyer, and who will act only with your goals in mind.

Why wait and wonder where to start when your best solution is at your fingertips and a phone call away? Start by visiting www.allanehomes.com today and giving me a call at (310) 541-6389, and we will work together to bring your real estate goals, your housing needs, and your desires as a home buyer to fruition.

Sincerely,

Allan Ephraim
